MISSOULA--

A University of Montana junior in home economics has been elected national chairman of the Student Member Section of the American Home Economics Association (AHEA) for 1981-82.

Susan J. Gust, Big Timber, was elected at the AHEA's 72nd annual meeting in Atlantic City, N.J. She will preside over 8,000 student members in 52 sections in major U.S. colleges and universities.

As national chairman, Gust's duties also will include representation of students to the association's national officers, voting membership in the AHEA board of directors and membership in the AHEA program of emphasis committee.

Gust was an intern during the 1981 Montana Legislature for the Montana Home Economics Association in family policy matters and has served as the secretary for both the AHEA Student Member Section and Kappa Omicron Phi, a home economics student honorary at UM. Her other activities at UM include membership in the UM Advocates, a student service organization. She is a pledge to Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority.

Gust is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gust of Big Timber.
